

Values of 'Knights' from Baden Powel and the values from the scouts every day life

Leadersship and leader roles from modern theories and practice. Knowledge from the daily patrol meetings and camps about how to cooperate, motivate and each the goals

Criteria for being electable as Patrol leader:

Know when to be serious

Listen, understand and be able to motivate all in the patrol

Make a good program and give good explanesions

Good at practicing the differenent activities and make a program with variations (be able to give knowledge on to others)

The group organisation and involving of the patrol leaders in the weekly, monthly and yearly program planning.

Both expertations and possibilities to influence.

The 5 areas of development for scouts and the activities and games that support this development.